6th, 7th Graders Learn Value of Money

By SUSAN CAMPAGNA

Recently a parent of an 11 year-old called a teacher at the Upper Grade School and asked, "What are you teaching my son? He has been begging me to buy our house instead of renting it."

The teacher explained that the student had been renting a desk in his social studies class and had recently put a down payment on it. "He is beginning to make mortgage payments and is probably sensing the pride of ownership," she continued.

Renting his desk? Making mortgage payments? Yes. The teacher might also have mentioned that students receive monthly paychecks, buy health insurance, and pay state and federal taxes.

THE TEACHER is Mrs. Maureen Musgrove. The activities are part of her "micro-society" approach to teaching 6th and 7th grade social studies at Antioch Upper Grade School.

Mrs. Musgrove knew that her students enjoyed competitive games. It occurred to her that they might learn easily about the concepts of banking, private enterprise and free competition by experiencing them firsthand in a classroom environment. Her initial plans included inexpensive materials, an attractive work goal for her students, and a means of mixing economic concepts with map skills, technology and culture.

Materials for the program are fairly simple. The State Bank of Antioch provided deposit and withdrawal slips and savings books. The micro-money is paper play money from a commercial educator's kit.

MRS. MUSGROVE explains that technical expertise and the profit motive grow gradually throughout the year. During the first semester, banking and savings and loan techniques are taught. Each student is assigned a job which he must first apply for, stating his qualifications.

The student selects his job from a long list which includes law officers, janitors, bankers, tutors, payroll clerks and paper distributors, and covers 25 other related positions.

In payment for his job, he receives a monthly paycheck in micro-money. He must immediately pay taxes, insurance, social security, fines he may have incurred for chewing gum or being tardy, and the rent or mortgage payment on his desk.

All students must "rent" their desks at the beginning of the year and all have the option to "buy" them for a one-third down payment. Bi-monthly salary increases are awarded on the basis of effort.

DURING THE second semester, earlier procedures are continued. Then students go on to learn the basic concepts of free enterprise. They may form their own companies. From their private enterprises they have a chance to buy stock, make investments and experience liquidation of holdings and bankruptcy.

One student plans to open a candy store. She can sell her baked goods in the cafeteria for the real money it has cost her to buy the ingredients. But she will also earn some micro-money for each sale she makes. She is learning two additional things: that she needs to advertise her baked goods to other students, and that she needs a permit to sell these baked goods.

BUT WHAT about social studies? Would a law officer only check for bubble gum and cheating and littering during his daily class, and do nothing else? No. And here Mrs. Musgrove explains how her micro-society functions as a skeleton for the 6th and 7th grade social studies curriculum.

Throughout the year the familiar concepts are taught as usual. The difference is that micro-money is paid to each student on the basis of work quality. The system is quite

AARP Meets Again Jan. 27

The Antioch Area Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) will hold its second meeting of the new year at St. Peter's social center on Tuesday, Jan. 27.

Coffee and cake will be served at 12:30. Following the refreshments, a business meeting will be held at about 1:30.

President Nicholas Ibach will ask for a review of the past year's programs. One important item, is membership dues. "The national officers are very fussy about chapters keeping their annual dues paid," a spokesman for the group said.

"The Antioch chapter has to spend more time getting information to its members in the way of information on benefits to the senior citizens in the Antioch area," said John L.

Horan, public relations chairman.

At the Jan. 27 meeting the Antioch postmaster, Walter P. Barnas, will discuss the local post office department, which is part of the Chicago operations, one of the biggest in the United States.

Movies at Library

Movies will be shown at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Antioch Township Library for children in kindergarten through the third grade. This Saturday's movies are "Astronauts" and "Little Gray Neck."

Pre-school story hours are held at the library on Wednesdays from 12:30 to 1 p.m.

FIRE DID EXTENSIVE damage last Thursday to a house owned by John Cardis at Indian Point near Grass Lake. The occupants were safely out of the house when firemen arrived at 5:08 a.m. and fought the blaze in 12-below-zero weather. Fire fighters with mustaches and beards soon found them coated with icicles. Fire Chief Charles Maplethorpe estimated that damage to the house and contents was between $25,000 and $30,000. Freezing nozzles hampered the firemen, who were helped by the Fox Lake department in bringing water to the scene. The house is just off Ackerman Rd. (Photo by Paul Maplethorpe.)

A historical display was presented in the lobby for old and new customers to enjoy. ## 3 Youths Caught By Local Police

Three young men were arrested early Friday morning in connection with a break-in burglary at John Teresi Chevrolet-Oldsmobile, Rte. 173, Antioch.

Charged with forced entry and burglary were Daniel Borke, 19, and Martin Funkhouser, 18 both of Round Lake Beach, and Ned Cate, 18, of Fox Lake.

While on patrol at 1:55 a.m., officer Stan Revell discovered a person running with a television set at the rear of the automobile dealer's building, according to Antioch Police Chief John Wells.

The person dropped the set and rolled under a car. Revell called for assistance from another Antioch squad, then took the suspect into custody. In checking the car, Revell discovered and apprehended another person on the floor of the back seat.

A second Antioch police car arrived at the scene, Wells said, and was joined by Lake County Sheriff's Department and Lindenhurst Police squads.

While the sheriff's deputies and Lindenhurst police watched outside where a search revealed a broken window, Ray Scarpelli, one of the owners of the auto dealership, guided Antioch police through the inside of the building. They discovered cabinets had been rifled and contents of a safe and other equipment scattered around the office. A further search of the area disclosed a third suspect, who surrendered, under a car.

The suspects were taken to the Lake County Jail.

"Revell did a fine job," said Wells, "and it was gratifying the way the Sheriff's and Lindenhurst police cooperated."

King's Drugs Burglarized

The owners of King's Drug Store, 400 Lake St., discovered a burglary when they arrived at work last Wednesday morning.

Police reported that someone had broken into the store by cutting and knocking a hole in the roof, 10 feet above the floor.

The police report said that a total of $313 was taken, plus about $114 worth of drugs and $2.50 from a lottery cash box. The burglar missed $200 that was in a second lottery cash box.

Rocks Offer Energy Source

The first comprehensive assessment of the geothermal resources of the nation has been prepared by the U.S. Geological Survey (USGS). The report reveals that huge quantities of heat exist in "hot spots" in the western states and in some parts of the Gulf Coast.

The report shows enormous amounts of natural heat are contained in rocks beneath the surface of all 50 states, but only a small percentage of the heat can presently be tapped. More, however, can be made available with increases in value of the energy and with the further development of technology.

According to the USGS, geothermal resources of the nation, which have been identified but for which recoverability costs vary from present levels to more than twice present levels, are potentially capable of producing about 42,000 megawatt-centuries of electricity.

A megawatt-century is equal to the production of one thousand kilowatts of electricity continuously for 100 years. A production rate of one thousand megawatts is the approximate need of a city of about one million people, and is the capacity of a large, modern nuclear or fossil-fueled power plant or a Hoover Dam.

Deficit Financing Leads to Disaster

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

In these days of exorbitant public spending, the federal government needs a direction and a way to go.

It could do no better than to follow the signposts of history and make use of the lessons of the past and the portents of the present.

We know, for example, what does not work; we know from history and from New York's present plight that deficit financing and overpowering paternalism lead only to disaster.

We also know that sound government economics are based on adherence to a balanced budget and a manageable government debt.

THESE THINGS are desperately needed but we cannot have them merely by saying we want them, by passing a law or by issuing an executive order.

At this juncture all we can do is begin moving in the right direction. And I believe President Ford's policy of vetoing unnecessary spending bills (vetoes the liberals refuse to support) is a step in that direction. I believe his attempts to reduce the oppression and red tape of federal regulation of business is another step.

Despite the huge deficits

President Ford's Administration is forced to run because of liberal commitments made in the past, I believe our government at long last has begun to inch in the direction of responsible public policy.

Our situation today is a serious one - in some respects it is a frightening one. At the very least it requires us to return to the fundamentals of industry, responsibility and freedom upon which this nation was born nearly 200 years ago.

If we are going to make the journey through the next 200 years we must begin moving in the right direction.

Freeway Plans Changed

Plans for two new freeways will be changed to provide four lanes instead of six, and to defer construction of some of the interchanges, according to the Illinois Department of Transportation and the Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission.

One of the new freeways will begin at the present end of Illinois Rte. 53, north of Palatine, and extend north to connect with the other. The second freeway will extend west from Illinois Rte. 120 at Grayslake across Lake and McHenry Counties, and then swing north to connect with Wisconsin Rte. 12.

simple. Excellence in quality pays $5 of micro-money; on the other hand, a penalty of $2 is extracted for work of poor quality. IN A REAL society, money earned and saved can buy real things. Micro-money can do this, too. And this is perhaps the most enticing by-product of a year in the micro-society. On May 13, a real auction will take place in the Upper Grade School gym with a professional auctioneer and such very real items as calculators, typewriters and fishing tackle. Beforehand, students will have an opportunity to liquidate all their financial holdings. From then on, their micro-money will have actual buying power.

Mrs. Musgrove explains that in the past she has used second-hand and commercially donated items for the auction. This year's auction will be different. This week, students in the micro-society began a door-to-door campaign to sell katydid candies in the community. The $2,000 they expect to earn from their sales will cover the cost of the auctioneer and a wide range of new items for prizes.

The micro-society approach is an experiment in learning at the Upper Grade School. When asked about its by-products, Mrs. Musgrove stated, "The program gives kids a chance to make mistakes and to feel tangible successes in working together." She added, "Many students are so busy playing the game that they don't realize they've been learning."

As one student said, when interviewed, "It's dynamite!" And that comment may speak for itself.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

JOE AND CAROL Badame, the very popular proprietors of Weasel's Italian Village on Rt. 173, celebrated their first wedding anniversary Tuesday.

And that was the day they returned from a week's vacation in Jamaica.

We've always wanted to go to Jamaica, where the temperature sashays seductively in the seventies, luring Americans ... especially in winter. We can hardly wait to hear Joe and Carol tell us about it.

BILL GEORGESON OF THE World Famous Village Pub isn't mentioning any names, but he's wondering why one of his best friends phoned him "collect" from Chicago because he had only 15 cents in his pocket.

BARB CORBIN spent New Year's in New Orleans, where she saw the Sugar Bowl football game in Louisiana's new Superdome.

"It's fantastic," said Barb. Especially the super-screen television system which provides spectators with simultaneous and instant-replay viewing of what is taking place on the Superdome floor. There are 22 by 26-foot TV screens on each of the six walls.

The New York Times said the Superdome would "make all other stadiums in existence as obsolete as Rome's Colosseum."

ONE OF the unhappy messages we received this week was that Ruth Elliott of Reeves Drug Store fell and broke her left arm.

ABC's of Travel

Domestic and International

By BARB CORBIN

At this time of year, many businessmen are having to turn their minds to Uncle Sam on various taxes. Following is a little hint which might be a tremendous savings in the future.

If you travel for business and attend conventions outside of the U.S., watch out for tax proposals limiting deductions. The House Ways and Means Committee in Washington is now working on a tax reform bill aimed at limiting allowable deductions claimed as legitimate business expense for attending conventions outside the U.S.

The committee aimed to peg allowable per diem deductions on par with those given to federal employees. As a result, these limits vary with different destinations.

For example, federal allowance for Acapulco is $38 a day, Paris $59 a day, Athens $31 a day, with the highest for Bahrain at $76 a day. The final drafting session is now in progress and might be reclaimed for the year 1975.

SHOULD FUTURE travels to Europe for business be considered, following are a few hints:

Recent survey conducted by Business International, Geneva, reports high and low prices for major European cities. For dining, most expensive - Paris, The Hague and Stockholm. Least expensive - Madrid, Barcelona, Dublin. Women's and men's clothing; most expensive - Paris, Geneva, Zurich, and Copenhagen. Cheapest - Athens, Brussels, Dublin and Milan. Dry cleaning of man's suit; costliest - Stockholm, Oslo, Copenhagen; Cheapest - Athens, London, Dublin.

All these zig-zagging prices for destinations in Europe along with the airfare itself can make a big difference on the various business trips and meeting areas.

Many destinations have special features for those of you who can plan ahead and be gone at least a week. Your best bet is to call your local travel agent, and tell where you are thinking of going and let them do all the work for you.

Economy today makes us all want to get the most out of the good old U.S. dollar. Happy travels.

They are buying the restaurant from the previous owner, William Nauman.

Mr. Lenny comes here from Ricketts Restaurant in Wheeling, Ill.

A recent article in the Chicago Tribune quoted the owner of Ricketts as saying:

"Chef Harry Lenny, the man behind the scenes, produces all the fine food served here. Chef Lenny has been with Ricketts for nine years. He originally was trained at the famous Buchbinder Hotel in St. Louis."

Harry and Maggie Lenny are planning longer hours for Thompson's and they will be closed on Wednesdays instead of Mondays.

Their hours will be from 11 a.m. till 9 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 11 a.m. till 10 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays, and from 11 a.m. till 8 p.m. on Sundays.

On Monday they plan an opening day special, a roast prime rib sandwich, for $2.95. Soup, salad, French fries and coffee will be included.

During their first week, Jan. 19 through Jan. 24, they plan an "opening week special" with soup, salad and coffee served with all lunches.

When you find yourself buying another multiple outlet, ask yourself if you may be overloading the circuits. If you don't know, don't chance it.

Dinner Hours Are Hazardous

A survey conducted by the National Bureau of Standards and the Consumer Product Safety Commission notes that, of 33,000 households surveyed, 2,463 reported fires in the last year.

Results of the survey showed that 65 per cent of these fires started in the kitchen, with the peak time between 5 and 6 p.m.; over 60 per cent of all fires involved appliances, and more than half of these involved ignition of grease and other foods.

Homemaking Hints

For Safety & Economy

BATHROOM SAFETY

Accidents do happen all around the house, but they occur most commonly in the bathroom. To make sure that your bathroom is as safe as possible for you and your family, see how it shapes up with this bathroom safety checklist:

* Date and label all medicines and check their shelf life. Medicines used incorrectly or beyond their expiration date can be more harmful than helpful.

* Store all medicines and caustic cleaning compounds in locked cabinets to prevent accidental intake by children and pets. And, even when discarding empty and old containers, place them where your small loved ones can't get at them.

* Harsh chemical cleaners can be harmful if accidentally used improperly. Always read instructions before using any cleanser and, whenever possible, avoid using hazardous ones. For example, instead of using drain cleaners which contain dangerous lye or acid, use Drain Power, the first drain opener to use pressure to unclog sinks and bathtubs.

* Line your bathtub with a rubber mat or with decorative rubber decals to prevent falls. A handle or rod installed on the shower wall will provide extra protection, too.

* Never use electrical appliances near water or wet surfaces. If you must use them in the bathroom, be sure to unplug them when they're not being used.

2 Arrested For Shoplifting

Two young Lake Villa men were arrested last week for shoplifting at Antioch's Ben Franklin store.

Police were called when the two were observed leaving the store apparently with items that weren't paid for.

The police report said the young men were 20 and 21 years of age. Police said one had five record albums, valued at $29, under his jacket.

The other, they said, had ice skates, a woman's boots, and other skating and fishing equipment worth about $42.

The young men have posted bond and will appear in court on Jan. 22.

But we have the largest paid circulation of any newspaper in Antioch village and township.

ANTIOCH UPPER GRADE students present flag to Principal Bill Herbst. Two students, Jacques Larson and Mike Perry, presented an ecology flag to Mr. Herbst on behalf of the students of Grade School District 34. The students of the Land, Air and Water club (LAW), under the leadership of Paul Epner, a science teacher, raised money through paper drives and ecology projects the past two years.

In the past the students have used the money for a variety of environmental activities. The ecology flag is in recognition of the leadership shown by District 34 in furthering environmental education in Lake County.

The District 34 program is being piloted by 180 teachers in Lake County for the 1975-76 school year. From requests received from other districts throughout the state, there apparently also is a great demand outside of Lake County.

The Town Crier

If you think Sunday's "Super Bowl" will be a tough game, we must inform you there are some heated contests underway in Antioch that are requiring much more discipline and desire than a mere football game.

We don't want to mention any names, but some of our best friends are competing in weight-losing competition with wagers ranging in the neighborhood of $1 a pound.

There are some rather flabby folks who realize they may have to appear in swimsuits within a few months, so the race is on.

AS AN EXPERT on losing weight (lost two pounds already this year), I feel an obligation to pass along some of my secrets:

1. Have a drink of water every time you pass a fountain. It's a great filler-upper.
2. Shun fad diets and over-exercising. Weight control is based on slow, steady loss.
3. Eat a good breakfast and then, all day long, chart every food you eat.
4. Hop out of bed every morning and jog a mile.
5. You're right, I just gave up too.

BUT IF you're really serious about losing pounds, you can join Weight Watchers or attend Thursday afternoon's Diet Clinic at the Family Counseling center in Grayslake. It lasts from 1 to 2:30 p.m. and the program is designed to keep the weight off once it is lost.

"Our methods are designed to permanently change eating habits," Bob Malo, director of the Diet Clinic said. "The emphasis is on relearning eating and exercising habits and maintaining a weight loss." Classes are held at Family Counseling on Rt. 120, just west of Rt. 45.

Interested persons can call 223-8107 for reservations.

MOOD RINGS were the rage a month ago, and now they're selling mood watches.

The color of the dial changes as your mood changes ... for example it's gray-black when you're troubled or strained (like at 7 a.m.) and blue-green when things are settling down. It turns blue-violet at the peak of happiness, which we presume is the cocktail hour.

NEW BUSINESS opening soon in town, and it has the catchy name of "Unfinished Business." It's at 925 Main St. and the owner, Janet Miller, will feature unfinished furniture, supplies and instruction. Her husband, Ed, owns The Boot Jack, across the street at 922 Main.

Lake Villa Man Dies In Crash

A Lake Villa man was killed early last Friday when the car he was driving went out of control on Rte. 59 and hit a utility pole.

Dead on arrival at St. Therese Hospital was Alan D. Plecinoga, 25, of 110 N. Rte. 59, Lake Villa. Sheriff's Deputies said Plecinoga was southbound on Rte. 59 near Monaville Road when the accident happened.

Plecinoga's car went off the west side of the road and traveled 225 feet before striking a utility pole. Deputies said a 10-foot section of the pole went into the driver's side of the car and pushed Plecinoga out the right side.

The car continued on for another 81 feet. Plecinoga was taken to the hospital by the Fox Lake Rescue Squad.

Electrical power in the area was knocked out briefly by the accident.

Fun With Faces

It's easy. It's free. It's lots of fun.

The next time you walk down the street, take a gander at the people you pass along the way and try to figure out what they do for a living.

Is that attractive middle-aged lady, who seems in such a hurry, a lawyer late for court or a bank teller late from lunch? Is that absent-minded gray-haired gentleman an English professor or a brain surgeon?

According to the face watchers at Kinney, The Great American Shoe Store, when people refer to a "great face" they usually mean a celebrity or show business personality. But there are a lot of great American faces walking around out there who aren't famous. And we the people ought to come in for our share of attention in the nation's Bicentennial year, according to the folks at Kinney.

The Great American Face

could belong to your drug-gist. Or to your uncle Al. What's The Great American Face? Is he or she from Maine, California or Texas? And when you spot one, can you guess what that person does for a living?

Let's face it, occupations may remain a mystery, but the guessing game is still fascinating. Face-watching just may become the new national pastime. Take your picture anyone?

Grade Schools Amend Policy On Lunches

An amended policy on reduced price meals has been announced by Antioch Grade School District 34.

In accordance with public law, school officials adopted the following family size-income criteria for determining eligibility under the free and reduced price lunch or breakfast program.

Grass Lake School, District 36, announced Monday that it is following the same policy.

The first number in each paragraph is the family size, followed by the family income for free meals and milk, and then the income for reduced price meals:

- 1, 3,230, 5,040.
- 2, 4,240, 6,620.
- 3, 5,250, 8,200.
- 4, 6,260, 9,770.
- 5, 7,190, 11,210.
- 6, 8,110, 12,650.
- 7, 8,950, 13,970.
- 8, 9,790, 15,280.
- 9, 10,550, 16,460.
- 10, 11,310, 17,460.
- 11, 12,060, 18,820.
- 12, 12,810, 20,000.

Each additional family member, 750, 1,180.

CHILDREN FROM families whose income is at or below the level shown are eligible for either free meals and free milk, or reduced price meals.

Families not meeting the income criteria, but with other unusual expenses due to high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses may also be eligible.

In addition, children whose parents or guardians have become unemployed are eligible for free or reduced price meals or free milk, provided that the loss of income causes the family income, during the period of unemployment, to be within the eligibility criteria.

APPLICATION FORMS are available at the principal's office in each school. If you feel that you may be eligible, you are urged to contact the school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications can be submitted at any time during the year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them, and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for these children, they should contact the school.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay.

Help Heal Your Headache

You may be giving yourself a pain in the neck . . . and the head. One of the most common kinds of headaches is caused by tension — in two ways.

When a person is confronted with a difficult situation, his natural reaction is to tense up the muscles in his neck and head, as if ready to fight. This tension caused by tension can lead to pain, which causes more tension, more tightening and more pain. Pretty soon, you have a full blown tension headache.

To get rid of it, there are generally two things you can do. One is to relax, getting rid of the tension and so the pain. For faster relief, you can take a pain killer, but you have to be careful what you take. The wrong pill can lead to more problems. Even something usually considered harmless, such as aspirin, can carry certain risks. For people with allergies, asthma, stomach troubles, or those taking anticoagulants or uric acid drugs for gout aspirin can cause unwanted effects. An alternative source of relief is Tylenol® analgesic products.

Fortunately no matter what you take for it, you don't have to worry about your headache driving you crazy. It has been found that headaches are virtually non-existent among mental hospital patients.

No More Needles?

The surgeon's traditional needle and thread is giving way to staplers which are not too different in appearance from the ones used in homes and offices.

These surgical staples enable surgeons to sew mechanically with very fine stainless steel staples. One reported advantage of the technique is that it reduces operating time.

The United States Surgical Corporation, which produces staplers, reports that close to 1,500,000 patients have been "stapled" since its product was introduced in 1968.

Wauconda Tests Antioch Saturday

Another very interesting test awaits Antioch High School's basketball team Saturday at 8 p.m.

Wauconda is coming to town with upset plans in mind.

Antioch and Stevenson share the Northwest Suburban conference lead with 4-0 records. Wauconda ranks third with a 3-1 record.

"It's a rather important game for us," said Coach Roger Andrews of Antioch. The Sequoits need a victory to stay in front as they seek their third straight conference championship.

They don't meet Stevenson until the final night of conference play, Feb. 27.

The Sequoits draw a bye this Friday, so they should be rested and eager to show their stuff to Wauconda.

"Wauconda has Brian Sarff, who is 6 feet 8 inches tall," said Andrews. "It will be interesting to see how we handle him."

coach, said recently:

"I don't feel Antioch is the team it was the last two years. They've got tradition going for them, but a lot of teams will be waiting for them."

Ed Dagdick, 6-foot-4, is Wauconda's No. 2 rebounder. Wauconda faces Lake Zurich (2-2) Friday night before coming to Antioch.

THE SEQUOITS got hot in the last quarter to score their fourth conference win last Friday. They beat Woodstock 69-61.

"The team played very well," Coach Andrews said. "Woodstock played a sharp game, too. We got a fine floor game by Bob Dubek and scoring from Scott Kimball, Mitch Witt and Dubek."

Andrews said his team showed good poise in the final, crucial four minutes.

"Dubek made a super decision and pass with 50 seconds left," Andrews said. "It was a critical play. Then Witt had two nice layups in the last 30 seconds and that was very big, too." He said, however, that Antioch gave Woodstock too many offensive rebounds.

THE ANTIOCH coach saw some bright spots in Saturday night's 70-57 loss to Libertyville, one of the area's outstanding teams. It was a non-conference game.

"Our team handled changing defenses very well," Andrews said, "and our zone offense was just super. Our free throw shooting was excellent again, too."

"Our boys continue to improve on handling pressure,"

Andrews said, "but our rebounding really fell off as we lost the battle of the boards. But, in all, I felt the team played well. They fought back twice, once cutting Libertyville's 14-point lead to six. The players called from the bench again did a great job."

ANTIOCH'S TOM McAVOY gets away from Libertyville defenders and goes up for two points.

Winning Tradition Pays Off

By MIKE WITT

TRADITION.

UCLA has it.

And what makes it so effective is that it is a "winning" tradition.

In comparison, Antioch is the UCLA of its conference, and the Sequoits have this tradition.

The Sequoits are used to winning in this conference and it showed Friday night at Woodstock.

THE BLUE Streaks had a 56-53 lead with about five minutes remaining, but they looked unsure of themselves, as if what was happening couldn't be done.

I'm not saying Antioch is invincible in conference play, but the Sequoits did what exactly had to be done this night.

They scored three straight baskets for a 59-56 lead. Woodstock only trailed 61-59 with one minute remaining, but the Sequoits put together eight straight points at this point to seal up a 69-61 victory.

WOODSTOCK CAME out smoking in the first quarter with some long jump shots and some good passing to take an 18-13 lead.

Woodstock had a nine-point lead several times in the first half, but the Sequoits would put their heads down and drive Woodstock's momentum back down each time.

Coach Roger Andrews gambled in the first half by playing Scott Kimball with three fouls most of the second quarter, and it paid off as his shooting stopped Woodstock from running off with the game. Another foul on him at this point would have been devastating for the team.

Antioch trailed at the half 34-33, and at the third quarter mark 48-47, and things looked uncomfortable to say the least.

George Ferguson and Kimball each had four fouls, and the key to Antioch's successful fourth quarter was that neither fouled out.

Friday Night - Antioch is idle.

Saturday Night - Wauconda at Antioch, 8 o'clock.

Libertyville Wildcats stopped the Sequoits on Antioch's home court 70-57.

It was a showdown between two conference leaders, and while Antioch played a good game, the Wildcats have a very good team.

The Sequoits were down by as many as 11 points in the first half.

But some sharp passing in the second quarter resulted in some easy baskets for Antioch and enabled it to trail at the half by only 32-26.

Antioch stayed close throughout the game, but it was evident the Wildcats were dominating the boards. Libertyville finished with 33 rebounds to Antioch's 19.

Down by 10 points in the last quarter, the Sequoits made a last fling at Libertyville. They had the ball and were down by only six points with three minutes remaining.

But a technical foul was called on Antioch, and the Wildcats converted the free throw and a basket to turn a possible four point dangerous lead into a game-ending nine point advantage.

The last surge was led by Tom McAvoy who scored four points, and caused several turnovers to give Antioch a chance.

KIMBALL LED Antioch's scoring against Libertyville with 20 points, hitting on nine of his 15 field goal attempts.

George Ferguson hit on seven of 11 shots and finished with 16 points. Mitch Witt was deadly from the free throw line, swishing nine out of 10 and finishing with 11 points for the game.

As a team, Antioch made 15 of 18 free throws - a department in which the Sequoits have been uncanny this season. But Libertyville made 20 of 23 free throws.

THE PREVIOUS night against Woodstock, Kimball poured in 23 points, Witt was sharp with 15, including seven field goals, and Bob Dubek contributed 14 points.

The Sequoits got off only 55 shots from the field, but they made 56 percent of them. Kimball, Witt and Dubek seldom missed when they fired at the hoop.

Antioch outscored Woodstock 22-13 in the last stanza, behind some very balanced scoring. Everyone contributed and it showed in the final scoring.

If the league wants to knock Antioch off the top this year, someone is going to have to beat these Sequoits fast, because they are getting more confidence every game, and pretty soon its going to be to late to do anything about it.

Varsity Wrestlers Flatten Woodstock

The varsity Sequoits wrestlers had a light weekend with only a conference meet against Woodstock. The Sequoits, showing improvement with every meet, beat Woodstock 40-12.

At 98 pounds Tim Dye met a Woodstock wrestler who was undefeated in conference action. After a first period that saw Tom losing 2-1, the young Sequoit hit an outstanding pinning combination and pinned the Blue Streak rival.

Tom is a sophomore who wrestled very little last year because of injuries. His rapid improvement has been a big part of Antioch's success.

At 105, Bob Gossman was the victim of a suprising call in the second period of his match. After taking his opponent down in the first period and almost pinning him, Bob led 5-0. In the second period, Bob was caught in a rolling situation and was called pinned. It took the highly participant Antioch crowd by surprise.

In the match at 112 freshman Marvin Gibson was clearly the aggressor but was unable to score against the stalling tactics of the Woodstock wrestler. Finally with only nine seconds to go, Gibson scored to win 1-0.

At 119, Robin Aerne won easily 9-0 but had to put his opponent on his back late in the third period to earn a 4-point team victory.

Wayne Blake, a senior who has fought his way into a starting position, wrestled a good match but lost 7-2 to one of Woodstock's outstanding wrestlers.

At 132 Greg Nordstrom ran his record to 21-2 with a 13-0 victory. John Kakacek won a 5-0 decision over a Woodstock opponent who was determined not to be beaten badly.

Geof Nordstrom won on a fall after leading 7-0. Dave Bogaerts, recovering from the flu, held on to win 3-1 over a strong Woodstock opponent.

Rich Gorski, wrestling one of the best matches of the season, outscored his opponent 12-2.

Dick Kessler at 185, also a flu victim last week, was not as fortunate as he lost 5-2.

Bob Ducato, at heavyweight, won on a forfeit.

Antioch's season record is now 6-3 overall and 4-1 in the conference.

Action picks up for the Sequoits as they wrestle Stevenson at home Friday night and travel to Harvard Saturday afternoon to wrestle Harvard and Rockford East.

Harvard is a power in the small school classification. Rockford East was 5th in the state championships last year. Action at Harvard begins at 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Jayvee Matmen Triumph 42-18

Last Friday Antioch's battling Sequoit JV-2 wrestlers dumped the visiting Woodstock Silver Streaks by a 42-18 score.

The spirited JV-2 Sequoits were led by pins from Jeff Gross, Randy Larsen, Del Gorski, Gene Lehn and Glen Learmont.

Brian Dyer and Bill Hudson won point decisions and were credited with wrestling solid matches.

On Thursday afternoon the JV-2 wrestlers entertained Carmel and came up on the short end of a 32-23 score. The ever-improving Antioch wrestlers were led by pins from heavyweight Bill Hudson and Randy Larsen.

Other Sequoits contributing wins were Rich Packert and Jeff Gross.

Brian Dyer and Gene Lehn had to settle for draws and Del Gorski lost a heartbreaking 5-4 decision at 138 pounds. The loss was especially tough in that Gorski gave up a sure draw by allowing an intentional escape in order to go for the winning takedown and the extra team points for Antioch.

The JV Sequoits wrestle Stevenson at Antioch on Friday at 6:45 p.m.

On Saturday the Sequoits travel to Harvard for a double-dual meet against Rockford East and Harvard, beginning at 10 a.m.

Bowls 300 Game Here

ROY HARTMAN

The damage termites cause and the cost of controlling them has been reported world-wide at $1.2 billion a year.

IT'S A MATTER OF LIFE AND BREATH

Roy Hartman bowled the first 300 game since 1965 at Antioch Bowling Lanes last Wednesday.

He was competing in the Businessmen's league and representing Gibbs & Jenssen's Carousel.

Roy said he had only one "Brooklyn" in his string of 12 straight strikes. He admits he became a little nervous after nine strikes, but managed to roll his next three balls right into the 1-3 pocket.

Roy, who lives in Salem, averages 187 on Wednesdays and 190 in a Sunday league. His previous high game was about 260, he recalls, and his high series is about 680.

Last Wednesday he finished with 671, opening with 191, then hitting 300 and finishing with 181.

Antioch Sophs Now Have 7 Straight Wins

The Antioch sophomore basketball team defeated Woodstock and Libertyville last weekend, extending its winning streak to seven games.

The sophs, now 10 and 3 for the season, are 4 and 0 in conference play.

Tracy Sodman led Antioch in the Woodstock game with 18 points and 11 rebounds. Bill Dubek added 16 points, Tim Huebner 11 and Tom Huebner 7.

Antioch took control of the game early in the third quarter and coasted to an easy 59 to 44 victory.

The following evening the sophs won a tough victory over Libertyville, 55 to 46. The Antioch squad, despite many passing errors, was in control throughout the contest. Tracy Sodman again led the team with 19 points and 16 rebounds. Bill Dubek added 18 points, followed by Tim and Tom Huebner with 6 each.

In both wins the sophs continued to get fine defensive games from Brian Andrews,

In Argentina, food prices rose 275.4 per cent between September 1974 and September 1975.

Jeff Eder and Dennis Korjenek. The sophs continue conference play this Saturday with a home game against Wauconda. Game time is 6:45 p.m. In sophomore "B" team action Antioch defeated Woodstock 64 to 46. The "B" team record is now 4 and 1.

Frosh Cagers Win Again

The Antioch freshmen basketball team won its fourth straight game at Woodstock last Saturday by downing the Blue Streaks 41 to 33.

Antioch upped its conference record to three wins and one loss.

Mike Lischewski again led in scoring with 14 points and grabbed nine rebounds. Chris Oddsen was the leading rebounder with 11.

Overall the game was very rugged. Both teams experienced numerous turnovers. Woodstock rebounded well which helped keep it in the game.

Antioch tended to dominate the action, however, as the Sequoit defense seldom gave the Streaks a good shot. Poor free throw shooting compounded the Antioch problems.

In the "B" game Woodstock rallied to win 39 to 36. Antioch led most of the way but free throws allowed the Streaks to pull the game out. Coach Steve Miklausch credited Jeff Thiel and Don Crichton with good games. Peter Ploss led all scorers with 15 points.

The next freshmen game is Monday at home with the Wauconda Bulldogs.

This Time Bill Dubek Won for Sure

Bill Dubek finally did it. He won the Antioch News basketball contest last week by picking Libertyville to beat the Sequoits by 12 points.

Libertyville won by 13 and Bill was closest of the many entries received. Although Libertyville was the favorite, most of the local fans remained

Earlier in the season Bill had picked the exact score and would have been the contest winner, but he accidentally put the score in the wrong blank on the entry. He could have kicked himself that time, but he atoned for it last week.

Second place last week went to John McAvoy, who picked Libertyville by eight. Talk about an expert - John was first the previous week. This time he wins a $10 gift certificate from BJ Rush Photo Studio. Last week it was a $15 savings account at the First National Bank.

In third place last week was Mike Gutowski, who predicted that Libertyville would win by six points. Mike will receive a $5 gift certificate at Gibbs & Jenson's Carousel.

Coming close last week were Bernie Gutowski and Jayce Redmer, each picking Libertyville by five points.

ANOTHER CONTEST appears in today's Antioch News. Because the Sequoits don't play until Saturday night, when a dangerous Wauconda team comes here, entries will be received up until 5 p.m. on Saturday.

They can be mailed, dropped off at the newspaper office, or dropped in the mailbox outside our door on Saturday afternoon.

Volleyball Team Is 2nd

Antioch's junior varsity girls' volleyball team ended its season by placing second in a conference tournament at Zion. Libertyville placed first. Antioch defeated Zion-Benton 7-15, 15-11 and 15-9.

Top scorers for Antioch were Sue Lass, Beth Maloney, Hope LaChance, Martha Mitchell and Val Busscher.

Other members of the team were Fran Diaz, Cindy Irmey, Barrie Kovach, Sue Fries, Julie Schugart, Patti Gross and Connie Nauer.

Corine Harnisch was named "most valuable player" and Connie Nauer "most improved."

Grade School Matmen Win

The Antioch Upper Grade School's wrestling Apaches continued their winning ways by defeating Harvard last Thursday.

The "A" team won 51 to 32. Winning for the Apaches were: Frank Heiselman, John Gibson, Rob Crowell, Mike Dye, Kevin Murphy, Scott Peterson, Paul Quinn, Chuck Bogaerts, Ted Bessette, Mike Case and Scott Buxton.

The "B" Team won 44-31. Winning points for Antioch were Mike Rizzo, Mike Case, Paul Kreulach, Mike Hogan, Jeff Canella, Ron Vos, Bob Wiatr, Dan Dalton, Rich Mitchell, Bryan Divis, and Larry Knab.

The Apaches will wrestle their first home meets today against Wauconda and Thursday against Deerpath of Lake Forest. Both meets will begin at 4 p.m. and admission is 50c for adults and 25c for children.

A short course in college economics

In just eight years, experts predict the average cost of sending today's 10-year-old to a four-year state university will exceed $30,000.

And at an annual inflation rate of 7%, costs can double in 10 years.
